INTELLIGENCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Policy on Release of Military Intelligence to

Foreign Governments

References: IAC-D-115/1, 8 April
IAC-M-337, item 4

The attached memoranda to the Director of Central Intelligence from the Secretary of State (Tab A) and the Secretary of Defense, as forwarded by General Erskine (Tab B), dealing with the question of the exercise of their authority over the release of military intelligence to foreign governments, are forwarded for information.

In the light of these memoranda, which take cognizance of NSCID 1 and of the criteria agreed to by the IAC as set forth in the IAC document entitled Criteria and Conditions Governing the Release of Intelligence to Foreign Governments by the IAC, it is understood that the authority of the Secretaries of State and Defense to exercise control of the release of classified military information under the Basic Policy Governing the Disclosure of Classified Military Information to Foreign Governments will not be applied to national intelligence and interdepartmental intelligence produced within the IAC structure which may contain military intelligence.

This agreement, together with the Criteria and Conditions Governing the Release of Intelligence to Foreign Governments by the IAC (Tab C to IAC-D-115/1, 8 April 1958), should be considered effective as of 11 June 1958.
